RAJYA SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on the 26th February, 1970:—

BILL No. VI of 1970

A Bill further to amend the Press Council Act, 1965

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Press Council (Amendment) Act, 1970.
- (2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.
2. In the long title to the Press Council Act, 1965 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after the word "newspapers", the words "and news agencies" shall be inserted.
3. In section 1 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2), the words "except the State of Jammu and Kashmir" shall be omitted.

Short title and commencement.
Amendment of long title.
Amendment of section 1.

Insertion of new section 2A.

4. In Chapter I, after section 2 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Rule of construction respecting enactments not extending to Jammu and Kashmir.

“2A. Any reference in this Act to a law which is not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that State.”.

Substitution of new sections for section 4.

5. For section 4 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

Composition of the Council.

‘4. (1) The Council shall consist of a chairman and twenty-six other members.

(2) The Chairman shall be a person nominated by a committee (hereinafter referred to as the Nominating Committee) consisting of the Chief Justice of India, the Speaker of the House of the People and the Chairman of the Council of States.

(3) Of the other members—

(a) thirteen shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee from among the working journalists, of whom six shall be editors of newspapers and the remaining seven shall be working journalists other than editors, so, however, that the number of such editors and working journalists other than editors in relation to newspapers published in Indian languages shall, in either case, be not less than three;

(b) six shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee from among persons who own or carry on the business of management of newspapers, of whom—

(i) one each shall be a representative of big newspapers, medium newspapers and small newspapers published in Indian languages, and

(ii) one each shall be a representative of big newspapers, medium newspapers and small newspapers published in any other language;

(c) one shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee from among persons who manage news agencies;

(d) three shall be persons having special knowledge or practical experience in respect of education and science, law, and literature and culture of whom respectively one shall be nominated by the University Grants Commission, one by the Bar Council of India and one by the Sahitya Academy;

(e) three shall be members of Parliament of whom two shall be nominated by the Speaker from among members of the House of the People and one shall be nominated by the Chairman from among members of the Council of States:

Provided that no working journalist who owns, or carries on the business of management of, any newspaper shall be eligible for nomination under clause (a):

Provided further that not more than one person interested in any newspaper or group of newspapers under the same control or management shall be eligible for nomination under clause (a) or clause (b).

Explanation.—For the purposes of clause (b), a “newspaper” shall be deemed to be—

(i) “big newspaper” if the circulation thereof exceeds fifty thousand copies for each issue;

(ii) “medium newspaper” if the circulation thereof exceeds fifteen thousand copies but does not exceed fifty thousand copies for each issue;

(iii) “small newspaper” if the circulation thereof does not exceed fifteen thousand copies for each issue.

(4) Before making any nomination under clause (a), clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (3), the Nominating Committee shall, in the prescribed manner, invite panels of names comprising twice the number of members to be nominated from such associations of persons of the categories referred to in the said clause (a), clause (b) or clause (c) as may be notified in this behalf by the Council:

Provided that until the Council notifies any such association, the Nominating Committee may nominate members to represent any of the categories referred to in clause (a), clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (3) after consultation with any such other association of persons of the category concerned or with such other individuals or interests concerned as it thinks fit.

(5) Where any association of persons referred to in sub-section (4) fails to forward a panel of names when invited to do so under that sub-section, the Nominating Committee may invite such panels of names in the like manner from any other association of persons of the category concerned or may nominate members after consultation with such other individuals or interests concerned as it thinks fit.

(6) Save as otherwise provided, no person shall be eligible for nomination under clause (a), clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (3) unless his name is included in the panel of names under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5), as the case may be.

(7) The names of persons nominated under this section shall be forwarded to the Central Government and shall be notified by that Government in the Official Gazette and every appointment so made under this section shall take effect from the date on which it is so notified.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Press Council of India was established under the Press Council Act, 1965, with effect from the 4th of July, 1966, for the purpose of preserving the freedom of the Press and of maintaining and improving the standards of newspapers in India. The first Chairman assumed charge on the 4th July, 1966, and the names of the 25 members of the Council were notified on the 16th November, 1966.

2. In December, 1967, references were made in the Rajya Sabha to the criticism regarding the composition and working of the Press Council and the shortcomings of the Act. A suggestion was made that Government should constitute a committee of members of both the Houses to go into the matter and submit a report, after consulting the organizations and others concerned, on the working of the Press Council Act, 1965. As a consequence, an Advisory Committee was set up in January, 1968. The Committee constituted under the Chairmanship of the then Minister of Information and Broadcasting consisted of 7 Members of the Rajya Sabha and 12 of the Lok Sabha. The Bill seeks to implement the recommendations of the Committee.

3. Since it will take some time for the Council to be reconstituted, in accordance with the provisions of the proposed new section 4, it is proposed to extend the term of office of the Chairman and the existing members of the Council till the 30th September, 1970 or till the reconstitution of the Council, whichever is earlier.

NEW DELHI;
The 20th February, 1970.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill contemplates amendment of the Press Council Act, 1965, in pursuance of the recommendations of the Advisory Committee on the Press Council.

As implementation of the Act with the proposed amendments will take effect from the next financial year, no additional funds are required on this account during the current year.

The implementation of the recommendations by amending the Press Council Act, 1965, it is expected, would involve financial implications to the extent of Rs. 25,600 per year recurring, as per details given below:—

The Press Council is proposed to be vested with the power to review cases of foreign assistance to newspapers on reference not only from the Central Government but also from any other person or organisation or on its own. In order to perform this function, the Council may have to appoint an Auditor|Accounts Officer on its strength to check the accounts of the newspapers, where necessary. This will entail an estimated expenditure on pay, allowances, T.A. and D.A. of about Rs. 12,000 per year.

In order to enable the Council to make a study of the foreign journals, particularly those brought out by foreign missions in India, their circulation and impact, in view of the proposed amendment to clause (g) of sub-section (2) of section 12, the Council may have to subscribe to these journals and an estimated expenditure of Rs. 2,000 per year is anticipated on this account.

As it is envisaged to bring news agencies within the purview of the functions of the Council, and to give representation for news agencies on it, the addition of one member to the Council becomes necessary. On this account, there will be an additional expenditure of about Rs. 3,600 a year on T.A., D.A., etc.

It is also proposed to empower the Council to nominate persons, on its committees set up under section 8 of the Act, as ad hoc members, without giving them the formal status, authority or the privileges of a member of the Council. Taking one ad hoc member for each of the four committees of the Council, vis.,—

- (i) Inquiry Committee,
- (ii) Finance Committee,
- (iii) Selection Committee, and

(iv) ad hoc sub-committee to be set up for specific purposes such as review of the cases of foreign assistance to newspapers, formulation of training schemes, etc., where specialists or experts may be nominated, an expenditure of Rs. 6,000 per year is anticipated on this account.

The Council has been given the discretion, under the proposed amendment, to include reports on important matters enquired into, or reviewed by it, either in the annual report or to submit the same as an interim report for being laid on the table of both the Houses of Parliament and an expenditure of Rs. 2,000 per year on printing is anticipated on this account. No non-recurring expenditure is likely to be incurred on the implementation of the recommendations by amending the Press Council Act, 1965.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Under clause 14 of the Bill, section 22 of the Press Council Act, 1965 which empowers the Central Government to make rules, is proposed to be amended to provide for—

(a) the manner in which the panels of names are to be invited by the Nominating Committee, under sub-sections (4) and (5) of new section 4,

(b) the conditions and the manner in which a representation for review of a nomination may be made, and

(c) the matters in respect of which powers vested in a civil court are to be exercised by the Council.

2. Section 16(3) of the Press Council Act, 1965 provides that the Council may spend such sums as it thinks fit for performing its functions under the Act and such sums shall be treated as expenditure payable out of the funds of the Council. Provision has been made in clause 15 of the Bill, authorising the Council to delegate its powers of incurring expenditure to the Chairman or Secretary, subject to such limits as the Council may stipulate.

3. The delegation is of a normal character.

B. N. BANERJEE,

Secretary.
